

Moe Library - Latrobe City Council

An IntraSpace Project

ABOUT THE PROJECT

- The $14 million Moe Library opened in early 2017. The La Trobe City Council facility is stage two of the redevelopment of Moe Railway Station precinct, which joins the recently launched clock tower and public amenities.
- Moe Library is a two-storey building with learning and collaboration spaces including public meeting rooms, family history room, commercial kitchen, reading spaces and a video game section.

PROJECT SCOPE

IntraSpace was awarded the project by La Trobe City Council under a contract from Procurement Australia. The company assisted FJMT Architects in Melbourne to design, specify and quote the installation of a new Library Shelving fitout.

The scope covered the supply and installation of Mobile and Static Library Shelving across 2 levels.

- / Mobile and Static Library Shelving Bays
- / Laminate End Panels and Top Canopies
- / Opac Computer Stations
- / Magazine Display and Storage Units
